

This transcript was exported on Jun 09, 2022 - view latest version here.

Speaker 1:

Pride Medical is available to patients who identify as gay, lesbian, queer, non-conform and non-binary questioning individuals. Having a patient identify as female, but living in a male body, just starting them on hormones, you see them becoming more connected with themselves, and that's pretty rewarding as a physician, to see that. We all want to be recognized. We all want to be identified, by according to who we are.